

Gee Family's Educational Tours

1. Educational tours are available during the months of July through November.
2. Educational tours will change with the months and seasons. For example, July, August and September will focus on Sweet Corn and September, October and November will focus on the fall season.
3. Please call for rates and information if interested in our educational tours.